» WARM GLOW

Melbourne mother-daughter team Mandy and Phoebe Munro sell handmade raw and recycled interior items from around the world, including linen from Japan, homewares from the US and textiles from India. These sculptural, free-form funnel lights are made in South Africa using river reeds and plastic funnels secured with cable ties. Large funnel light shade #5, $240. After Online, afteronline.com.au.

» WRAP IT UP

Using her photos taken while travelling overseas, Sydney designer Lillie Toogood turns her images of street scenes, neighbourhoods and architecture, and turns them into abstract patterns for her striking silk and wool scarves. Ikea Trap House scarf from the Hectic Geometric Collection, $235. Good & Co, wearegoodandco.

» CLEAN SWEEP

Supporting disadvantaged communities in India, ethical lifestyle brand Cloth and Co offers hand-spun, loomed, dyed and printed quilts, towels, napery and clothing, using traditional techniques to make contemporary designs. These split bamboo sweepers with braided handles are handmade by women in Bihar, one of India's poorest states. Bamboo sweeper, $25. Cloth and Co, clothandco.co.

» STONE AGE

Pittella tumbles its raw brass door handles with small stones to remove unwanted casting marks without using chemicals. The worn-surface finish changes over time, developing a unique patina. Odile door handle, $466. Pittella, pittella.com.

« SIT TIGHT

Drawing inspiration from mid-century shapes and Bauhaus design, Melbourne's Beeline Design is cabinetmaker Adam Brislin and clothing designer Lucy Grant. They make stools, tables, beds and lighting with sustainably sourced timbers, paired with a different material for each new range. For Cuba, it was leather, while Calypso features copper and brass. Tall brass Calypso stool, $355. Beeline Design, beelinefurniture.com.au.

« NOTEWORTHY

Founded in Paris in 2011, Papier Tigre uses childlike patterns and recycled eco-friendly materials to create bright, playful stationery, now available here through online shop Notemaker. Papier Tigre notebooks, from $19.95. Notemaker, notemaker.com.au.

» GLASS ACT

Travelling in Italy, Sydney couple Jenny Westrup and Quentin Robertson discovered Zafferano glass and dinnerware, with its vintage looks and colours. They now import it through their business Casa e Cucina, including porcelain plates and bowls and wine glasses. Perle bowl, $139/set of 2; tumbler, $89/set of 2. Casa e Cucina, for stockists phone 9958 3271, casaecucina.com.au.
